IN THIS DAY-LONG FREE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM,

teachers, their students as well as interested individuals have an opportunity to interact with women and men who have made successful marine careers. Our programs have included professional underwater photographers, undersea explorers, underwater robotics designers, treasure hunters, naval commanders, commercial divers as well as college students who are building their careers through internships and scholarships.

THIS IS AN OPPORTUNITY TO LEARN

just what it will take for students to create their own successful career in one of the many occupations in the maritime industry.

Be sure to check out the

LEARN BY HAVING FUN!

Participate in interactive educational workshops.

PAST PROGRAM WORKSHOPS AND EXHIBITORS

COMMERCIAL DIVING SIMULATION:

Students have an opportunity to do a valve assembly, bare-handed, first wearing gloves, then blindfolded, all while being timed! And, then, the students will “dress up” in a commercial diving rig and practice doing an inspection along a mural of pier structure.

Teams will compete for prizes!

SCHOLARSHIP TIPS:

Learn about the marinerelated scholarships that are available and the requirements needed to apply. Participate in an exercise to help guide you in writing your own application essay.

MARINE CREATURES

IDENTIFICATION COMPETITION:

Hot competition, prizes, and lots of fun learning!

OCEANS OF PLASTIC

And, learn some techniques that you can use in your everyday life to help save the ocean. You will never look at household items, such as, plastic bottles, milk cartons, and aluminum cans in the same way again.

MARINE CAREERS EXHIBITORS:

Our Marine Careers Exhibitors share great information about marine careers, internships, community activities, and academic opportunities.

Past exhibitors included:

WHAT IS BENEATH THE SEA?

For thirty-five years, Beneath The Sea has been successfully following its mission promise of educating the public about the oceans and the men and women who work in them. Each year, Beneath The Sea conducts a weekend International Oceans Exposition for the interested public presenting a summary of the year's activities in the fields of oceanographic challenge and opportunity. The Marine Careers Program, focusing on educating our young people about the sea and what it means to our life, opens up the world of opportunities for the next generation of men and women who will find their life in the ocean.
