

We have selected the Midas Hotel as our hotel of choice in Manila.

Midas Hotel

Our hotel in Manila is the Midas Hotel on Roxas Blvd about 20-25 from Manila airport (depending on Manila traffic and airport terminal). It is formerly the Hyatt Regency and was reopened in 2011 as the Midas Hotel after significant renovations.

It is a "full service" hotel with casino, 2 restaurants, in room security safe, room service, air conditioning, TV, lobby lounge, money exchange and etc.

Manila's Mall of Asia is about 5 minutes away and the Midas offers complimentary shuttle transfers.

In 2014 rooms are approximately $140 USD per room for 2 people and include accommodations, Internet, taxes and service charges.

Midas also offers a day room (maximum of 6 hours) at $115 USD for maximum of 2 persons and includes accommodation, taxes and service charge.

Transfers between the Manila airport and the Midas Hotel are:

- $36 each way for one person traveling alone
- $20 per person each way for 2 or more traveling together in the same transfer

We do not provide "ala carte" transfers, for example, hotel only without transfers.
