Good food, generally decent atmosphere, nothing fancy - come as you are type of place. And they have a full bar. We thought it might be a good idea for Saturday since it would allow people to get their own food (order, sit down with #, food is brought by #). So, I chatted with the manager briefly and he said that it would be fine for the group, they could set up tables for us if we give them advance notice as to the # of people, etc. He even said people could place their orders in advance and they prepare them prior, pop them in the oven when we pay and the wait will only be about 10 minutes.

There are some that want to get in a night dive so if we plan to start the dinner around 6pm, those that want to go do a night dive can and those that aren't can hang out or people can trickle in when the urge hits them!
